

ICEAA Day in Canada

Time	Activity	Location
0800-0900	Registration	Lower Level Foyer
0800-0900	Continental Breakfast
0900-0930	Welcome Doug Dempster, Centre for Executive Leadership, Telfer School of Management	Laurier Salon
0930-1015	Introduction to ICEAA and Cost Estimating Dr. Daniel Nussbaum, Naval Post Graduate School	Laurier Salon
1015-1030	Break	Lower Level Foyer
1030-1115	Strategic importance of cost estimating David Mosher, Congressional Budget Office	Laurier Salon
1115-1200	Cost estimating tales from south of the 49 th parallel Karen Richey, Government Accountability Office	Laurier Salon
1200-1330	Lunch	Laurier Salon
	Keynote Speaker Murray Brewster, The Canadian Press
1330-1500	Breakout sessions
	Picking the right number Cost estimates usually come in ranges. How do we advise clients who only want one number?	Wellington Salon
	Staying on track Countless cost estimates are abandoned after the project is approved. What costing techniques can be used to keep a project on time, on scope, and on budget?	Dalhousie Salon
	Risky business Cost estimators are challenged to develop budgets that account for complex risks. How do we account for the unknown-unknowns?	Rideau Salon
1500-1520	Break	Lower Level Foyer
1520-1620	Report back on breakout sessions TBD	Laurier Salon
1620-1640	Certification Matters Dr. Daniel Nussbaum, Naval Postgraduate School	Laurier Salon
1640-1700	Closing Remarks TBD	Laurier Salon